

Horizon 2020 Batteries Information & Brokerage Event

ETC.venues – The Hatton, Farringdon, London, 7th November 2019

Agenda

09:30	Arrival and Registration
10:15	Welcome Viola Hay, KTM – European Programmes, KTN Ltd
10:20	UK Participation in Horizon 2020 Stephen Alexander, National Contact Point for Financial and Legal Issues
10:35	Background: H2020 Batteries 2020 Call Topics Johan Blondelle, DG Research, European Commission
11:00	Tea &amp; Coffee Break
	Current Battery Initiatives
11:30	Faraday Initiative – Anna Wise, Innovate UK
11:45	Introduction to EBA250 – Thore Sekkenes, InnoEnergy
12:00	ETIP Batteries – Ilka von Dalwigk, InnoEnergy
12:15	Q&A
	Pitching Session
12:30	Project Idea Pitches from Delegates Participants
13:00	Lunch and Networking

14:00	Table Discussions  Companies that pitched have the opportunity to host a table. Delegates can move around twice, so they can go to three different tables. / Potential for NCPs / EEN / KTN to host a table.
	Support available to potential applicants
15:00	Automotive Batteries: A £4.8bn a year supply chain opportunity by 2030 for the UK – Sheena Hindocha, KTN
15:10	Hints and Tips: How to write a good proposal?  Helen Fairclough, H2020 NCP Energy
15:30	Collaboration Support Landscape  Shane Chester - EEN  Viola Hay, KTM – European Programmes, Knowledge Transfer Network
15.50	Next Steps &amp; Close  Viola Hay, KTM – European Programmes, Knowledge Transfer Network
	Coffee and Networking

