

Precision Medicine in Glasgow

Scotland's existing Precision Medicine Ecosystem

High quality patient data and samples, with a large cohort of patients with chronic disease

World class research in precision medicine and computer science

£1bn investment in Queen Elizabeth University Hospital Campus

Strong Research Industry Collaboration
Stratified Medicine
Scotland Innovation Centre

Precision Medicine Infrastructure

- Stratified Medicine Scotland Innovation Centre
- Imaging Centre of Excellence
- Glasgow Clinical Research Facility
- NHSGGC biorepository
- Clinical Innovation Zone
- iCAIRD

Living Laboratory for Precision Medicine

- Real world implementation of precision medicine
- Accelerating commercial innovation
- Validation of digital technologies

Business Opportunities

Scotland is one of Europe's key life science clusters.....

 37,000 people employed

 700 organisations

 £2bn GVA for Scotland

with existing strengths in clinical trials.....

8 of the top 10

global contract research organisations are located in Scotland and an emerging precision medicine business base.

Global precision medicine market estimated to be $134bn by 2025

